

This name was chosen because tech means technology and office means office.

We highlight the T, inspired by printed circuit boards, and as you can see we put it in blue, because it represents technology.